Chapter 60. Southern Indiana, Indiana State, and Ball State University Scholarships

IC 20-12-60-1

Student appointments; qualifications and benefits

Sec. 1. The board of trustees and faculty of:

- (1) the University of Southern Indiana;
- (2) Indiana State University;
- (3) Ball State University; and
- (4) Vincennes University;

may appoint annually to the university under their respective jurisdiction not less than two (2) students or scholars from each county in this state. The nominations shall be made on the basis of scholarship and superior mental ability. Scholars appointed under this section are entitled to enter, remain, and receive instruction in the respective university for the next school year after their appointment, upon the same conditions, qualifications, and regulations prescribed for other applicants for admission to, or students in, the respective universities. However, any student attending the respective university under this chapter shall not be chargeable for the payment of any contingent fees, and these appointments may be made from students eligible to enter the respective university or students in attendance at the respective university.
